

Saint Joseph Health System Pharmacy Residency

Alumni

SAINT  JOSEPH
HEALTH SYSTEM

A Member of Trinity Health

GRADUATE MEDICAL EDUCATION

Pharmacy Residency Program
611 E. Douglas Rd., Ste. 407
Mishawaka, IN 46545

p: 877.635.8788
f: 574.335.0791

sjmed.com

Anita Schwartz, PharmD, BCPS

Butler University, 2004

SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2005

Dr. Schwartz had the honor of graduating as the first resident from the Pharmacy Practice Residency Program at Saint Joseph Health System (SJHS) in 2005. Upon graduation she took a position within the organization as a Clinical Ambulatory Care Pharmacist at Healthy Family Center, where she also served as coordinator for the standardization of medication assistance programs. She served as the Associate Director of the residency program and while in this position was an Adjunct Assistant Professor of Pharmacy Practice for both Butler and Purdue Universities precepting PharmD candidates. In addition, she taught pharmacology to second-year medical students at Indiana University School of Medicine — South Bend. She later became a Pharmacy Manager with WalMart and, in that setting, strived to advance the practice of community pharmacy using her clinical knowledge along with her practice management skills.

After moving to Lafayette, Indiana, she began as a Clinical Pharmacy Specialist at Franciscan Saint Elizabeth Health. There she assumed the Residency Program Director position prior to the incoming class of 2011 - 12 residents. She focuses on medication reconciliation and emergency medicine.

Katherine Freeman, PharmD, BCPS

Purdue University, 2005

SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2006

After completing her residency at SJHS, Dr. Freeman relocated to Michigan and worked at Henry Ford Health Systems and Health Alliance Plan. Since 2008, she has been a Clinical Pharmacy Specialist in Primary Care at the VA Ann Arbor Healthcare System. She has an established clinic within an interdisciplinary team. She is involved in inter-professional education activities with the University of Michigan School of Medicine and additionally precepts pharmacy students from the University of Michigan School of Pharmacy, Wayne State University School of Pharmacy, as well as pharmacy residents at the Ann Arbor VA. She is a member of the facility pharmacy and therapeutics committee. Dr. Freeman most recently joined Disaster Emergency Medical Personnel System (DEMPS) which is the Veterans Health Administration's main deployment program to staff an emergency or disaster.

Angelina Sagarsee, PharmD, BCPS

Purdue University, 2006

SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2007

Dr. Sagarsee graduated from Purdue University School of Pharmacy followed by the Pharmacy Residency Program with an emphasis in ambulatory care at SJHS. After graduation, Dr. Sagarsee has continued with SJHS serving in various capacities, including Associate Director of the PGY1 ambulatory focused residency, TCM pharmacist, and pharmacist at Granger Community Medicine. Most recently, she is working PRN with SJHS while providing a home education to her children.

Nathaniel Sagarsee, PharmD

Ohio Northern, 2006

SJHS PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2007

Attending Ohio Northern University and completing a PGY1 residency has prepared Dr. Sagarsee to fill a variety of positions in the pharmacy field, from hospital administration, clinical pharmacy and now ambulatory care.

He recently served at the Pokagon Band of Potawatomi Indians Health Services Clinic and currently serves in ER Pharmacy at Elkhart General Hospital. For him, the practice of pharmacy is not merely a profession, but an art form – designing, evaluating and managing processes to improve patient care, patient satisfaction and employee satisfaction all while reducing cost.

Anna Vaysman, PharmD, BCPS, CDE

Midwestern University, 2007

SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2008

After completing her residency at SJHS in 2008, Dr. Vaysman worked for six years as a Clinical Assistant Professor at the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy, as well as a Clinical Pharmacist in the Department of Pharmacy Practice. She has delivered patient care in various settings including medication therapy management, antithrombosis, women's health and hepatitis C clinics. More recently, Dr. Vaysman transitioned into a managed care role at CVS/Caremark, where she worked in the Formulary Administration Department, focusing on health care reform. Currently, Dr. Vaysman works for Astellas Pharma as an Associate Director as part of the Field Health Economic and Outcomes team.

Heidi Anksorus-Light, PharmD, BCPS

University of Illinois, 2007

SJHS PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2008

Dr. Anksorus was the second resident to complete the PGY1 Pharmacy Practice Residency at SJHS. Upon completion of the residency, she was offered a position with SJHS, where she continued developing her practice working in various areas of SJHS's Pharmacy Services. Her experiences there made it possible for her to transition to her current role as Clinical Assistant Professor at the University of North Carolina Eshelman School of Pharmacy in the Division of Pharmacy Practice and Experiential Education. In addition, she spends one day each week at the University of North Carolina Hospital for her practice site.

Kierstan Hanson, PharmD, BCPS, CTTS

University of Iowa, 2008

SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2009

After completing her residency at SJHS, Dr. Hanson joined the Faculty at Ferris State University and maintained an ambulatory care practice site. In 2013, she returned to SJHS as a co-funded faculty member with Manchester University. She transitioned from SJHS to teaching full-time in the pharmacy practice lab. In 2018, her responsibilities expanded to serving as the Inclusion & Wellness Coordinator. She loves this role because she is able to connect with the students and help them weather the challenges of pharmacy school.

Michelle Herrmann, PharmD, BCPS

University of Iowa, 2008

SJHS PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2009

After completing her residency year, Dr. Herrmann took a job at Deaconess Hospital in Evansville, IN, where she worked for two years. While at Deaconess, she was a Clinical Staff Pharmacist and was part of the initiation of an outpatient oncology infusion center. After realizing her passion for acute care medicine and precepting students, she became an Adjunct Assistant Professor at the University of North Carolina Eshelman School of Pharmacy with her practice at Vidant Medical Center in Greenville, North Carolina. She served in this role for 7 years. She then transitioned to Clinical Pharmacy Supervisor – Medicine, Behavioral Health, and Rehabilitation within Vidant Medical Center Department of Pharmacy. Dr. Herrmann now serves as the Diabetes Program Manager for Vidant Medical Center where she continues to pursue her passion for patient care and precepting with a focus on inpatient glycemic management.

Isabel Hagedorn, PharmD

Purdue University, 2009

SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2010

After graduating from her pharmacy practice residency at SJHS, Dr. Hagedorn completed a PGY2 residency in public health and academia with Butler University.

She then went on to complete a yearlong Global Health Fellowship with AMPATH in Eldoret, Kenya, through Purdue University. She has since returned and accepted a position with Butler University working in their employee health and wellness program, Healthy Horizons. Dr. Hagedorn is passionate about public health and wellness and looks forward to incorporating more global health opportunities into her future career.

Sheena Sanders, PharmD, BCPS

Butler University, 2007

SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2010

Upon completion of her residency at SJHS, Dr. Sanders went on to complete a PGY2 residency specializing in ambulatory care and education at St. Vincent Indianapolis. She is currently an Ambulatory Pharmacist faculty member of Butler University College of Pharmacy.

Katie Rodeffer, PharmD, BCPS

Purdue University, 2009

SJRCM PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2010

After completing her residency at SJHS, Dr. Rodeffer took a position with Lutheran Hospital in Fort Wayne, Indiana. She leads the clinical pharmacy team in her role as clinical coordinator. One of her favorite aspects to her job is serving as preceptor for both PharmD candidates and pharmacy residents in the areas of adult medicine and oncology.

Carolynn Horn, PharmD, BCPS, BCACP

University of Cincinnati, 2010

SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2011

Dr. Horn graduated from the University of Cincinnati in 2010 with a Doctor of Pharmacy Degree. Following graduation, she completed her PGY1 with a focus on ambulatory care here at SJHS. After taking time off to enjoy her new role as adoptive mother, she began working and continues to work remotely at SJHS part time. She helps with the Saint Joseph Physician Network quality indicators for CMS Part D Star Ratings including medication adherence. Even though she lives in Owensboro, Kentucky, she interacts frequently with the other members of the ambulatory care pharmacy team and enjoys teaching them some of her Southern sayings.

Colleen Teevan, PharmD, BCPS, BCCCP

University of Connecticut, 2010

SJHS PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2011

Dr. Teevan graduated from the University of Connecticut School of Pharmacy in May 2010. She finished her PGY1 residency at SJHS in June 2011 and went on to complete a PGY2 critical care residency at Northwestern University/Northwest Community Hospital near Chicago. I'm the critical care pharmacist and RPD at The Hospital of Central Connecticut.

Asima Ali, PharmD, BCACP

University of Illinois, 2011

SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2012

Dr. Ali went on to complete an ambulatory care/academia PGY2 residency at the Richard L. Roudebush VAMC & Purdue University in 2013. She is currently a Clinical Assistant Professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at Campbell University College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences (CUCPHS). In this role she precepts fourth-year pharmacy students on ambulatory care/geriatrics rotations at Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Dr. Ali feels that the skills and relationships she gained during her time at SJHS have helped her develop into a well-rounded pharmacist and motivational educator. If given the choice she would do it all again in a heartbeat! She looks forward to the professional and personal journey in store for her and to sharing her experiences with friends and mentors she has gained along the way.

Emily Prabhu, PharmD, BCPS

Butler University, 2011

SJHS PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2012

Dr. Prabhu graduated from Butler University in May 2011, and completed her PGY1 residency year at SJHS in June 2012. Having completed her PGY2 residency in Health System Pharmacy Administration at the University of Virginia Health System, she is now a medication utilization specialist with Ochsner Health System in Louisiana.

Diane Nguyen, PharmD, BCPS

Massachusetts College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences, 2012

SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2013

Dr. Nguyen grew up in Montreal, Quebec, and spent the latter half of her childhood in Houston. After graduating from the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences-Boston, she completed her PGY1 residency at SJHS and PGY2 Public Health residency with The State University of New Jersey, Rutgers and Bristol-Myers Squibb Foundation. Her interests lie in working with underserved communities and exploring opportunities at the intersection of pharmacy and global health. She looks forward to continue this work with the Baylor College of Medicine International Pediatric AIDS Initiative (BIPAI) at Texas Children's Hospital. She enjoys international travel, live music, ethnic foods and hiking.

Alison Stair, PharmD

Ohio Northern University, 2012

SJHS PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2013

Dr. Stair is from Nappanee, Indiana, which is approximately 35 minutes from SJHS. After graduating from Ohio Northern University, she came back to the area to complete her PGY1 residency year. She continued with SJHS for five years after graduation, eventually leaving to pursue administration. She is currently the Director of Pharmacy Services at Unity Physician's Hospital. Dr. Stair, her husband, and son continue to live in Nappanee, serving the area in both professional and philanthropic capacities.

Victoria Pattison, PharmD, BCPS, CTTS

Duquesne University College of Pharmacy, 2013

SJHS PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2014

During her time as a resident at SJHS, Dr. Pattison had many opportunities in both ambulatory and acute care pharmacy. She is currently a Home-Based Primary Care Clinical Pharmacy Specialist at a rural clinic in Northern Michigan with the Saginaw VA. Her current duties include Medication Therapy Management (MTM), precepting pharmacy students and residents, and working on national initiatives to update the Electronic Health Record within the VA. During her residency year, she and her husband explored South Bend and the surrounding area as much as possible. Her love of the outdoors and the Great Lakes is which led her and her family to Alpena, a small town on Lake Huron. She enjoys meeting up with friends that she made during her residency year at SJHS to this day.

Mckaya Kastner, PharmD, MBA, BCPS

North Dakota State University College of Pharmacy, 2013

SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2014

of Medicine – South Bend free clinic and form great relationships with the people at her sites. After residency graduation, she moved to Minneapolis, MN and served as a pharmacist at CVS before accepting a clinical position with

Dr. Kastner's time as a resident, she was able to create a transition of care clinic, assist in developing a medication dispensary for the Indiana University School of Medicine – South Bend free clinic and form great relationships with the people at her sites. After residency graduation, she moved to Minneapolis, MN and served as a pharmacist at CVS before accepting a clinical position with Allina Health. For six years, she provided comprehensive medication management as a pharmacist practitioner in three metro clinics and through virtual and home visits. She was also site coordinator for Allina Health's PGY1 ambulatory care residency. In 2020, Dr. Kastner earned her MBA and in 2021 became Director of Pharmacy and Population Health for the Allina Health Group. Outside of pharmacy she enjoys spending time with family, traveling to National Parks and weight lifting.

Kirk Evoy, PharmD, BCACP, BC-ADM, CTTS

Purdue University College of Pharmacy, 2013

University of Wisconsin PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2014

SJHS PGY2 Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Residency, 2015

he had here as a student on rotations, the unique and fun-loving work environment in the Family Medicine Center, the many chances to teach and network at Purdue and Manchester Universities and the unique opportunity to develop his own transitions of care clinic. Today, Dr. Evoy is a Clinical Assistant Professor at The University of Texas at Austin College of Pharmacy, as well as an Adjoint

Dr. Evoy returned to Indiana and completed his PGY2 Ambulatory Care Residency here at SJHS because of the excellent experience he had here as a student on rotations, the unique and fun-loving work environment in the Family Medicine Center, the many chances to teach and network at Purdue and Manchester Universities and the unique opportunity to develop his own transitions of care clinic. Today, Dr. Evoy is a Clinical Assistant Professor at The University of Texas at Austin College of Pharmacy, as well as an Adjoint Assistant Professor in the School of Medicine at the University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio. In addition to his teaching and research responsibilities within the college, Dr. Evoy is also responsible for caring for patients as an ambulatory care pharmacist within the University Health System in San Antonio. Dr. Evoy's primary areas of research include substance use disorder and smoking cessation. Outside of work, he can usually be found at the gym, playing or watching sports, listening to music or traveling to catch up with his now-dispersed group of friends.

Alicia Dethloff, PharmD, BCPS

Butler University College of Pharmacy, 2014
SJHS PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2015

Dr. Dethloff is a remote Clinical Pharmacist II serving Advocate Aurora Health hospitals across Wisconsin and Illinois. She is specialty trained in Pediatric and Neonatal populations and parenteral nutrition. She frequently assists in training residents and new hires in the department. She is married to her first love, Andrew, and they live in Muskego, WI with their daughter, dog, & backyard chickens. They enjoy outdoor activities, traveling, and spending time with family and friends.

Hanna Raber, PharmD, BCPS, BCACP, CTTS

Drake University College of Pharmacy, 2014
SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2015
SJHS PGY2 Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Residency, 2016

After residency, Dr. Raber began working for the University of Utah College of Pharmacy in Salt Lake City as an Assistant Professor of Pharmacotherapy. Additionally, she will maintain a practice site as an Ambulatory Care Pharmacist in a family medicine residency outpatient clinic.

Linda Farrell, PharmD, BCPS

Purdue University College of Pharmacy, 2015
SJHS PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2016

Over the course of Dr. Farrell's residency year, she focused on becoming a well-rounded pharmacist with emphasis on teaching, NICU, medication safety, and infectious diseases. She honed her teaching skills by precepting pharmacy students from Purdue University and Midwestern University. In addition, she developed educational sessions for nurses and hospitalists covering blood culture microbiology tests. Upon completing her residency, she remained within SJHS as a Decentralized Pharmacist and is now currently the Pharmacy Informatics Coordinator.

Brittany Spiller, PharmD, BCPS

Butler University College of Pharmacy, 2015
SJHS PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2016

Throughout Dr. Spiller's time at SJHS, she was able to complete a variety of unique experiences including a global health trip to Thailand, teaching pharmacy students from Purdue and Manchester Universities and developing a neurology rotation and implementation of pharmacists in stroke rounds. Though Dr. Spiller stayed with SJHS after her residency, she now practices as Neuro Pharmacist at Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital in New Jersey.

Jason Isch, PharmD, BCACP, CTTS

Purdue University College of Pharmacy, 2015
SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2016
SJHS PGY2 Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Residency, 2017

Dr. Isch has continued to work with SJHS as a partially funded faculty with Manchester University. His areas of expertise include chronic disease state management and outpatient infectious disease. He was initially drawn to SJHS because of the people and their genuine attitudes along with elite care provided to patients. He has a strong passion for teaching others as well as building lasting relationships with his patients. In his spare time, he loves to play sports and games, try new foods, and travel around the country and globe with his wife, Jessica.

Diana Mechelay, PharmD, BCPS, BCACP, CTTS

*Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center Jerry H. Hodge School of Pharmacy
SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2017
SJHS PGY2 Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Residency, 2018*

Dr. Mechelay graduated from Texas Tech Health Sciences Center School of Pharmacy in 2016. After completing her PGY1 and PGY2 residencies at SJHS, she took an ambulatory care position with the Christus Trinity Mother Frances Health System in Tyler, Texas, where she established an anticoagulation clinic and served as drug expert for the Longview region. In the spring of 2020, Dr. Mechelay returned to Indiana and is now practicing as an ambulatory care pharmacist within the Saint Joseph.

Kris Denzel Tupas, PharmD, BCPS, BCACP

*Purdue University College of Pharmacy, 2017
SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2018
SJHS PGY2 Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Residency, 2019*

After completing the ambulatory care residency program at SJHS, Dr. Tupas moved back to Chicago to work as an Assistant Professor of Clinical Sciences with the Roosevelt University College of Science, Health, and Pharmacy in Schaumburg, Illinois.

In addition to her teaching and precepting responsibilities, she maintains a clinical practice site at Advocate Sykes Outpatient Center in downtown Chicago. Outside of work, Dr. Tupas enjoys traveling, good food, and spending time with her friends and family (including her totes adorbs cat, Mango).

Joseph Stoldt, PharmD, BCPS

*Purdue University College of Pharmacy, 2018
SJHS PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2019*

Upon completion of his residency at SJHS, Dr. Stoldt moved to Orlando, Florida to work on completing a PGY2 residency specializing in critical care.

Upon completion of his PGY2, Joey is interested in pursuing adjunct clinical professor positions.

Alyse Briggs, PharmD, BCPS, BCACP

*Butler University College of Pharmacy, 2018
SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2019
SJHS PGY2 Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Residency, 2020*

After completing the ambulatory care residency programs at SJHS, Dr. Briggs moved to Springfield, Missouri where she works as an Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Specialist at CoxHealth. There she provides pharmacy services to two family medicine clinics, serves as a primary preceptor for PGY-2 Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Residents, and works to expand the impact of pharmacy services. In her free time, Dr. Briggs can be found working in her vegetable garden, training her rescue beagle (Max), playing tennis, and spending time with friends and family.

Sunitha Johns, PharmD, BCPS

Ohio Northern College of Pharmacy, 2018
SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2019
SJHS PGY2 Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Residency, 2020

After graduating from Ohio Northern University, Dr. Johns completed her PGY1 and PGY2 ambulatory care pharmacy residencies at SJHS. She is currently a clinical pharmacy specialist at Franciscan Health in northwest Indiana. She has leaned on her versatile residency training to cover pharmacy services such as the anticoagulation clinic, 340B pharmacotherapy clinic, and employee speciality pharmacy before establishing her clinic in chronic disease state management in a team-based environment. She continues to be passionate about training the next generation of pharmacists.

Nick Bosso, PharmD

University of Buffalo College of Pharmacy, 2019
SJHS PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2020

After graduating from the University at Buffalo, Dr. Bosso completed his PGY1 acute care pharmacy residency at Saint Joseph Regional Medical Center. He is currently a clinical pharmacist at Saint Francis Hospital and Medical Center in Hartford, CT. He practices in a wide variety of clinical settings including Orthopedics, Oncology, Surgery, Internal Medicine, and Critical Care. The wide variety of knowledge and learning experiences he gained from his Saint Joseph training perfectly prepared him for the ever changing and evolving role of clinical pharmacy in the inpatient setting. Outside of the hospital, he enjoys spending as much time outdoors as possible including hiking, biking, and running.

Miranda McFarlane, PharmD, BCACP

Purdue University College of Pharmacy, 2019
SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2020
SJHS PGY2 Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Residency, 2021

Dr. MacFarlane graduated from Purdue University College of Pharmacy in 2019 and went on to complete both her PGY1 and PGY2 at Saint Joseph Healthy System specializing in ambulatory care. During this residency she earned her Indiana Pharmacy Teaching Certificate while precepting APPE students, medical residents, and podiatry residents. Dr. MacFarlane will be staying on with the Saint Joseph Team as a clinical pharmacist in multiple clinics and will be co-coordinating diabetes classes.

Stephanie McAfee, PharmD, BCACP

Purdue University College of Pharmacy, 2019
SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2020
SJHS PGY2 Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Residency, 2021

Dr. McAfee originates from Fort Wayne, Indiana. She graduated from Purdue University with her Doctor of Pharmacy in May of 2019. Following her graduation, she came to Saint Joseph Health System for both her PGY1 and PGY2 residency training in the Ambulatory Care field. Dr. McAfee stayed within the Saint Joseph Physician Network offices to serve patients in chronic disease state management in both the Bremen Family Medicine and Bourbon Family Medicine Clinics as well as initiate a clinical pharmacist role within the Wellness and Weight Management Clinic. In her free time, Dr. McAfee enjoys spending time with her family at the lake, crocheting/cross-stitching/creating something, and playing volleyball with friends.

Yassmeen Marzuq, PharmD, BCPS

*University of Connecticut College of Pharmacy, 2020
SJHS PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2021*

After completing her residency, Yassmeen will remain as a clinical pharmacist within SJHS, continuing her passion for patient care.

Molly Corder, PharmD, BCPS

*Manchester University College of Pharmacy, 2020
SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2021
SJHS PGY2 Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Residency, 2022*

Dr. Corder graduated from Manchester University College of Pharmacy and completed both her PGY1 and PGY2 residency at Saint Joseph Health System. Upon graduation Dr. Corder will be an assistant professor of pharmacy practice in ambulatory care at Manchester University—a school that has her whole heart.

Her short term career goals include promotion to associate professor of pharmacy practice. Dr. Corder's long term career goals include full time work in academia with potential opportunities as a lab director, as an administrator in experiential education, or as an administrator in college of pharmacy affairs.

Faria Chaudhry, PharmD, BCPS

*University of Tennessee College of Pharmacy
SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2021
SJHS PGY2 Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Residency, 2022*

Dr. Chaudhry graduated from the University of Tennessee Health Sciences Center. After completing her PGY1 and PGY2 residency years in ambulatory care, Dr. Chaudhry joins Purdue University as an Assistant Professor where she will be able to combine her love of teaching the next generation with her interests of diversity, health equity and social determinants of health that affect patient outcomes.

Sydney Stratford, PharmD

*Manchester University College of Pharmacy, 2021
SJHS PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, 2022*

Dr. Stratford is originally from the South Bend/Mishawaka area. After residency graduation, she will be spending time around family and working at Saint Joseph Hospital and Costco. She will be getting married in August of this year and will be moving to San Diego, California where her soon-to-be husband is currently stationed for the military. In California, she will pursue her passion of institutional pharmacy with direct patient care in an interdisciplinary healthcare team environment.

Michelle Adgalanis, PharmD

Purdue University College of Pharmacy, 2021

HealthLinc/Purdue University College of Pharmacy PGY1 Pharmacy Residency Program, 2022

SJHS PGY2 Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Residency Program, 2023

Dr. Adgalanis graduated from Purdue University College of Pharmacy in 2021 and went on to complete her PGY1 Community Pharmacy Residency at HealthLinc and her PGY2 in Ambulatory Care at Saint Joseph Health System. After completing residency, Dr.

Adgalanis returned to HealthLinc to serve as a Clinical Pharmacist utilizing her clinical knowledge from her years of residency. Outside of clinic, she enjoys spending time with family and friends, working out at Orange Theory, and cheering on her New England sports teams!

Ermina Lilic, PharmD, BCPS

Manchester University College of Pharmacy, 2021

SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency Program, 2023

SJHS PGY2 Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Residency Program, 2023

Dr. Lilic originated from Rochester, New York. She graduated from Manchester University College of Pharmacy, Natural & Health Sciences in 2021. She then went on to complete her PGY1 and PGY2 residency training in the Ambulatory Care field at Saint Joseph Health System. Outside of pharmacy, spend time with family/friends, play with her yorkie-poo Smoki, and crochet.

Priyanka Patel, PharmD

Butler University College of Pharmacy, 2021

University of Cincinnati College of Pharmacy PGY1 Pharmacy Residency Program, 2022

SJHS PGY2 Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Residency Program, 2023

Dr. Patel completed pharmacy school at Butler University in Indianapolis, IN. After pharmacy school she decided to complete a PGY1 Community Based Residency at University of Cincinnati and Five Rivers Health Centers, a federally qualified health center. Following her PGY1 she decided to complete a PGY2 focused in ambulatory care.

During her years of residency, she developed a passion for patient care in underserved and diverse patient populations. After residency, Dr. Patel will be moving to Chicago and working as an ambulatory care pharmacist at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center. In her free time, she enjoys traveling, knitting, event planning, and hanging out with friends and family.

Mallory Carter, PharmD

Butler University College of Pharmacy, 2022

SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency Program, 2023

Mallory Carter is from Brownsburg, IN and graduated from Butler University College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences in Indianapolis, IN. She completed her ambulatory-care focused PGY-1 at the Saint Joseph Health System in Mishawaka, IN. She is excited to begin her second year at SJHS. She is passionate about individualized and comprehensive care and has special interests in geriatrics, women's health, and HIV. Outside of healthcare, she enjoys trying new restaurants, reading, and traveling (especially to visit family and friends).

Zachary Martin, PharmD

*Manchester University College of Pharmacy, 2022
SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency Program, 2023*

Dr. Zachary Martin graduated from Manchester University College of Pharmacy in 2022 and subsequently completed his PGY-1 residency focused on ambulatory care at Saint Joseph Family Health System. He will be completing his PGY-2 ambulatory care residency at Saint Joseph Health System further expanding his experience as a clinician and improve patient care. In his free time Zach likes playing sports like tennis and golf, attending trivia competitions and spending time with friends and family.

Olivia Ramey, PharmD

*University of Rhode Island – Kingston, 2020
The Ohio State University College of Pharmacy Postdoctoral Fellowship, 2022
SJHS-FMC PGY1 Pharmacy Residency Program, 2023*

Dr. Ramey graduated from the University of Rhode Island in 2020 with her PharmD and a minor in French. Dr. Ramey then completed a 2-year postgraduate fellowship focusing on pharmacotherapy and health outcomes research at Ohio State University. During her first year of residency, Dr. Ramey focused on becoming an experienced clinician, educator, and leader. She looks forward to supporting the team with development of innovative pharmacy services during her PGY2 in ambulatory care at SJHS. In her free time, Dr. Ramey enjoys weightlifting, hiking, reading, and taking care of her dog, Gigi, and her numerous houseplants.

Kalai (Audrey) Wong, PharmD

*University of North Carolina – Chapel Hill, 2022
SJHS PGY1 Pharmacy Residency Program, 2023*

Audrey Wong graduated from UNC Eshelman School of Pharmacy in 2022. She completed her acute care PGY-1 at the Saint Joseph Health System in Mishawaka, IN.

Her clinical interests include infectious diseases and pediatrics. Outside of pharmacy, she is actively involved in public health policy and advocacy and holds several leadership positions globally. She also enjoys traveling and exploring new restaurants.

Our Mission

We, Trinity Health, serve together in the spirit of the Gospel as a compassionate and transforming healing presence within our communities.

SAINT  JOSEPH
HEALTH SYSTEM

A Member of Trinity Health

GRADUATE MEDICAL EDUCATION

Pharmacy Residency Program
611 E. Douglas Rd., Ste. 407
Mishawaka, IN 46545

p: 877.635.8788
f: 574.335.0791

sjmed.com