POLICY:

1. This policy describes when cases are reviewed if the physician whose case is being discussed is unable to present his/her case. The purpose of this policy is to help facilitate the timely review of cases.

PROCEDURE:

- A. If a physician has a case pulled for peer review for either CVS or PVS, the attending will be notified to present the case at the next scheduled peer review meeting.
- B. If that physician is not able to attend that first peer review meeting, then the case will be tabled until the following peer review meeting.
- C. If the physician is not able to attend the following peer review meeting, the case will be discussed without the attending present.
